A GREAT HIT.

The Theatre of Harrigan and Hart, the Famous Showmen, is Converted into Ruins.

The Senate Grows Weary of the One-Sided Show and will Take a Recess.

Saved from the Wreck—Struck by a Train—The General News.

Harrigan & Hart's Theatre Burned.

New York, Dec. 23.—Harrigan & Hart's Theatre Comique on Broadway, opposite the New York hotel, was destroyed by fire this morning. The theatre cost $125,000.

The books and money belonging to the Actor's Fund association were in the safe in their rooms on the second floor and are proposed to have been totally destroyed. The safe in the treasurer's office of the theater contained besides the books of the establishment, $2,000 in money and the manuscripts of several of Harrigan's plays.

The excitement in the Colonnade hotel for a time was in tense. The waiters had to go through the building to arouse the guests. Many of the latter became terror-stricken and ran down stairs in their night clothes. The proprietor succeeded in quieting them after a time.

The interior decorations cost $3,000 and the scenery for "The Major," which was the opening play in the new house, cost $20,000. Since that time the scenery of ten plays has been added, which increased the value of the stage settings to $25,000. Besides this, mosaics of Harrigan's new play, "McAlister's Legacy," which cost $10,000, were in the house. Everything was lost. The expensive property and wardrobe of the drama company were destroyed.

The loss of Dave Brashier, who had his original manuscript music, which made the names of Harrigan and Hart famous throughout the land, is the home, cannot be estimated. Loss, $20,000; no insurance.

OTHER PLACES.

Troy, N. Y., Dec. 23.—Cambridge, Washington county, was visited by a great conflagration this morning. Four brick houses were burned. Probable loss, $10,000. Estimated insurance between $50,000 and $75,000.

Salem, Mass., Dec. 23.—The south section building on State street, burned this morning. Totally destroyed; loss, $15,000. Forty hundred children were in the building but all got out safely. No insurance.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 23.—This morning three stores burned. Loss, $12,000; insurance, $1,500. The engine was frozen up.

The Open Winter.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The weather continues very cold but the signal service reports show it has moderated somewhat throughout the northwest. The temperature here at 6 o'clock was 4 below; at St. Paul, 12 below; at Duluth, 8 below and snowing; at Fargo, 25 below and at Omaha 7 below.

A Train Struck by a Train.

Cincinnati, Dec. 23.—A special from Chattanooga says: "Obstructions on the track of the New Orleans and Northeastern railway, near Parvis, Miss., threw the entire north-bound express train from the track last night. Engineer Robert Turner and his fireman were killed. Others were injured, but their names not obtained."

With Success as Leading Lady.

Parsip, Dec. 23.—Sarah's new play, "Theodore," which has been in preparation some weeks will be given for the first Friday night with Sarah Bernhardt in the leading role. It is reported that Henry E. Abbey has been granted the rights of the English and American rights.

THE CITY.

H. G. Olds is at St. Louis.
 Congreasman Lowry is at home.
 Deputy Sheriff Ed Clammyer is sick.
 Saloon men who sell liquor on Sunday will be prosecuted.

The West End Roller Skating rink is quite a popular resort.

John M. Calkins, of Bryan, Ohio, is the guest of John F. Rodenburgh.

Dr. J. M. Danner, the cobbler, has had one inquest since his election.

Mrs. F. Grubb, of Broadway, is quite ill. The lady has a cancer on her side.

 at the City rink last night, did not per-

The city council will be in session for an hour or so to-night. Not much business is coming up.

Pittsburgh passenger train No. 1 was three hours late today. The trouble was east of Crestline.

During the past year Governor Porter has only pardoned fifteen criminals, five of them out of the northern prison.

Hon. R. C. Bell goes to Washington to-night. Mr. Bell is strongly advocating Jim McDonald for a cabinet position.

Fred Bowermaster, of Smith street, was sent to the St. Joe hospital yesterday. He was unable to care for himself.

The "Immortal J. N." came to town last night. J. N. has never paid railroad fare or put much money into anything else if he could help it.

Tristess Gaffney sent an old soldier to Delphos, Ohio, last evening. The soldier was destitute, but had papers to show that he fought for his country.

The funeral of Oliver Grisley, who died last Sunday with consumption, onceared to-day from his late home at the corner of Bass and Hoagland streets.

The mayor will close the roller skating rinks unless a license is paid. The city attorney decides they must pay a license like all other places of amusement.

Will McKinney's pacing horse, "Billy F.", carried off the honors of the show yesterday. Some pretty fast work was done and Berry street was lined with spectators.

Superintendent O'Rourke is at Wasco, Michigan, superintending the placing of an automatic electric crossing at the Grand Rapids and Indiana and Michigan Central roads.

Col. Kimball, who travels for the Gold Lion whisky house, of Baltimore, has given his friend, John McCain, of the "Home," a bromeliac emblematic of the brand of whisky.

George A. Dickson has let go his interest in the Zoo theater, at Indianapolis and Charles A. Gilmore is now the sole proprietor. Mr. Dickson is interested in the Academy here.

Larry King, a gambler known here, is said to be under arrest at Toledo for the murder of an old woman known as "Mother Stahl." King is one of the smartest crooks in the business and is too sharp to be connected with a murder.

Jared D. Bond calls a meeting of the stockholders of the Fort Wayne National bank for January 23. The charter of the bank expires January 25 and steps will be taken to renew the existence of the solid institution and the oldest bank in the city.

Hay Treasurer Berghoff has a notice in THE SENTINEL that taxes will be received Monday next and thereafter.
 Mears, Rockwell and Berghoff have the duplicate made and everything is in readiness to begin the New Year in a proper way.

Mr. Ed. Burns and wife, who have been here for the last three weeks on their wedding tour, returned home to Pullman, Illinois, last Sunday night.
 Ed is an old Fort Wayne boy, who is now holding a good position with the Palma Palace Car company at Pullman, Illinois.

The house committee on post offices and post roads has decided to recommend that the free delivery system be extended to all cities of 10,000 inhabitants, and to all post offices whose receipts exceed ten thousand dollars per annum. If this bill is passed it will give Logansport, Michigan City, Bloomington and several other Indiana towns free delivery.

The mayor has received from the executive committee of the Young Men's Independent Municipal Club, of New York, a circular letter inquiring whether the city and state elections occur at the same time and if not what has been the effect of a change from such a course and its influence on the vote. They also ask for any information and opinion on the subject.

Sheriff Nelson went out last night to search for the rascals who desecrated the Christian church, on the Bluffton road.
 The man cannot be found, but it is known that one of them lives at Oregon and the other fellow in Michigan. The farmers who live near the chapel are aroused and threaten to string the dispervers up if they are caught. Affida-vites are on file in Ryan's court, but constables are afraid to serve the doc-ments.

"EDWARD'S BURGESS."

The above entitled absurdity will be presented at the Academy Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, with a Christmas matinee.

Dickson's Sketch club, an unpretentious little company of a good deal of merit, will do the work.

Their entertainment consists of a couple of sketches of the Troubadour order, which permit the introduction of some and some very clever specialties.

The performers are talented people and give a very enjoyable as well as intelligent entertainment.

"THE ELECTRIC LIGHT CONVENTION."

A new stationary engine, from the Bass Foundry and Machine works, is being put in shape at the Electric Light works.

This will increase the power of the electric lights and enable the company to hang additional lamps.

Trev. McDonald, the manager of the works, feels pretty sure at the council. Said he:

"We agreed to light the city better than it was ever lighted and every one knows we have done that. The council wanted us to hang a light at the temporary bridge over the St. Mary's river, on Wells street, and now wants to hang a lamp at the レイテイク street crossing of the Pittsburgh and Wabash roads. When the city has got the railroad companies paid for the lamp at this point. They now expect us to light the city better for less money and put a lamp at the railroad crossing too. We employ a dozen or eighty men and pay them bigger wages than any other company in town; have a capital of $60,000 invested in the works, and if the people of Fort Wayne don't appreciate that I am in favor of moving the works from the town altogether. The stopping of our pay by the council has not injured us in the least, but the report that our light was a failure here has injured us as regard.

I heard it at New Orleans."

The machinist in the Pittsburg machine shop will give each of the laborers a turkey for their Christmas dinner.

Mike Maloney says he prefers a goose, but not quite so tough as the one Frank Fitzpatrick and Hagan gave him last Christmas.

The Christian Sunday school gives the children of the school a free supper in the G. A. R. hall on Wednesday afternoon and evening, beginning at 4 o'clock for the smaller children, and continuing until late supper hour for the larger scholars and visitors.

The Fort Wayne Building, Loan and Savings association will meet to-night at their hall in the Odd Fellows building.

This association is in a flourishing condition and any person can borrow money regardless of previous membership by becoming a successful bidder.

Speaking of the arrest of Larry King, the Tolson Rep. says: "Albert King, better known as Larry, a noted confidence man, was arrested Saturday evening on the charge of being a suspicious person. He has secured Judge Harrington for counsel and the case is continued until Wednesday, bail being fixed at $100. It was supposed that he was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of Mrs. Stahl, but the fact is that, at the time that he was arrested, he was in a gambling room engaged at a game of cards. Larry's friends in Chicago and New York are doing all they can to secure his release."

AMUSEMENTS.

"Lights of London."

This popular melo-drama was given to a small assembly at the Academy last night. The scenery was put on the stage in good shape and every promise of the management fulfilled.

The play was well received.

Tom Keene.

The tragedian and his company are in the city and this evening will present

"Hamlet" at the Temple opera house.

Mr. Keene is praised by all the critics for his great ability.

With his usual rhythmic movement and grace he presents a picture of Hamlet that is unique.

He is a true Hamlet.

He is a Hamlet.
